Business Designations

NC Emergency Management has a process to vet businesses and allow them the ability to move IF an emergency or shelter in place should their usual operations warrant such.

Businesses should email beoc@ncdps.gov. In the email, they should provide the following:

1. Business name
2. Point of Contact including:
   - name
   - email
   - phone number
   - address
3. Nature of their business and why they are critical to continue operations
4. Business website
